

Types of EYC Memberships

A. VOTING MEMBERS

Any person eighteen (18) years of age or over, who is of good character, reputation and qualifications, shall be eligible for Voting Membership.

A Voting Member shall be entitled to full Club rights and privileges, including unlimited use of Club facilities, voting at any meeting scheduled pursuant to the provisions in the bylaws, holding elective or appointive office and serving as Chair of any committee established pursuant bylaws.

B. ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

Any person between the ages of eighteen (18) and thirty-five (35), who is of good character, reputation and qualifications, shall be eligible to apply for Associate Membership. Associate Members shall satisfy the same membership qualifications and application procedures as Voting Members.

Associate Members shall enjoy all the rights and privileges of Voting Members excluding voting and holding elective or appointive office.

Prior to reaching age thirty-five (35) Associate Members may, and upon reaching age thirty-five (35) Associate Members shall, apply to fleet up to Voting Membership pursuant to the membership rules and procedures set forth in the EYC Club Policy.

C. JUNIOR MEMBERS

Any person under age twenty-one (21), whose character, reputation and qualifications have been vouched for by a Voting Member, shall be eligible for Junior Membership.

Junior Members shall not be entitled to vote, hold elective or appointive office, or serve as chair of any committee established in the bylaws.

Prior to reaching age twenty-one (21) a Junior Members may, and upon reaching age twenty-one (21) a Junior Member shall, apply to fleet up to another membership category pursuant to the membership rules and procedures set forth in the EYC Club Policy.

D. NON-RESIDENT MEMBERS

Persons otherwise eligible for Voting Membership, who reside beyond a one hundred (100) nautical mile radius from Eastport Yacht Club and who do not berth their yachts in the Maryland portion of the Chesapeake Bay, shall be eligible to apply for Non-Resident Membership.

Non-Resident Members shall enjoy the rights and privileges of Voting Members, excluding voting and holding elective or appointed office.

Non-Resident Members who, for any consecutive thirty (30) day period, either reside within a one hundred (100) nautical mile radius of Eastport Yacht Club or berth their yachts in the Maryland portion of the Chesapeake Bay shall be responsible and billed for dues and bar minimums at the Voting Member level for that quarter. Non-resident dues will not be assessed for quarter(s) for which the Non-Resident Member is billed at the Voting Member level. If the Non-Resident Member dues have already been paid for the quarter involved, the Non-Resident Member will either be credited or reimbursed for the amount already paid.

Non-Resident Members shall confirm their Non-Resident status for the entire following year by November 15, in accordance with Club rules and procedures as set forth in the EYC Club Policy.

Non-Resident Members who move their residence to within a one hundred (100) nautical mile radius of Eastport Yacht Club or berth their yachts in the Maryland portion of the Chesapeake Bay for more than one hundred eighty (180) consecutive days shall be disqualified from Non-Resident status and shall apply for Voting Membership status pursuant to the membership rules and procedures set forth in the EYC Club Policy.